The bi-monthly newsletter for Friends of Hengistbury Head Lookout and its Watchkeepers

Issue 34 September 2025

From the Editor:

Hello again and welcome to the latest Edition of 'Ahoy', the newsletter for the 'Friends' supporting, and colleagues manning, the Lookout at Hengistgury Head. Our aim is to keep you updated with the work of our team volunteering to operate this busy station. Over the summer we had access difficulties but they have now been resolved with the acquisition of a golf buggy to transport crews to and from. This was a very kind donation from one of our supporters. It has meant that we have been able to maintain most of our volunteers, some of whom would have been unable to make the walk in the severe weather conditions we sometimes experience at Hengistbury.

In this issue:

- In Focus - a regular feature about one of our volunteers and any personnel highlights - this month one of our newest recruits.
- Training update – new recruits and developments
- Thank you - to Friends & supporters
- Been there done that - a summary of recent 'Incidents' and Station activities
- Looking Ahead – dates for your diary
- Stay in touch – essential contact details

In Focus

Name Chris Greenwood

Role within the Station

Watchkeeper

When and why did you join NCI Hengistbury Head ?

I joined in April 2025.

Why? – Funnily enough it was my wife who volunteered me after speaking with Gill (our secretary) at the Kings Park Nursery. Gill suggested I might like it. One thing led to another and after retiring in April I was on board.

What are the best and worst aspects of being part of NCI Hengistbury Head?

Best – doing something worthwhile for myself and the community at large in a role I didn't know existed until about 18months ago.

Working alongside new colleagues, finding out what they have done in the past and what they do now.

Worst – Having to remind some of the other watchkeepers where the kettle is when it is their turn to make a drink.

Are you a sailor?

Certainly not, but if you ask Bob he calls me Captain Chris. This is because when I first met him he asked if I had any nautical experience to which I replied 'only cross channel ferries'. He then asked me what I did and I said 'I just sit on them.'

He thought I was a captain or first officer or what ever, but actually I was a holiday maker!

Tell us a little about your career.

I started out working in social housing, did this for 27 years, made redundant, worked for the NHS then retired.

You must have had some real career highs and lows!

Career highs – working with great people

Career lows – too many to mention

Hobbies

I am a member of Christchurch Angling club and fish as often as I can. I also try and attend the gym as often as I can.

Also, though I am not particularly a motor sport fan but I have attended Le Mans 24hrs every year since 1996 and only missed 2 events. It is great to meet up with my two oldest pals and my brother. A couple of years ago I was lucky enough to travel down in my friend's Ferrari 488 Spyder

Cat? Dog? Stick Insect?

Cat – called Charlie

Favourite tipple

Any Belgium beer and Drambuie – not together of course.....

Favourite Book/Film

Book - Haigh Guide to Trout Fishing in England – I borrowed this from the local library when I was a teenager and couldn't believe that the rivers and landscapes, as depicted in the book, actually existed. I kept the book for so long that incurred a large fine and asked if I could buy it instead! When I eventually moved down here, I fished some of those rivers.

Film – Jaws. Just amazing, hardly saw the shark but the music and cinematography kept you, and still does funny enough, on the edge of your seat.

What, for you, is the best bit of being part of NCI Hengistbury Head?

Being amongst like-minded people who all are dedicated to doing a good job

And finally, where's your feel-good, favourite place?

My holiday cottage in France – arrive there and relax.

France was always my holiday destination due to my tremendous fear of flying, however after having hypnotherapy 3 years ago all that fear has gone and since visiting the Greek Islands I can now also rate those as my happy place or places.

Also on the banks of the river Avon waiting for a bite watching all the wildlife – kingfishers, otters and birds of prey etc. and nodding off occasionally.

Training Update

Recent newly qualified Watchkeepers

Norm Husband, pictured here receiving his epaulettes, successfully completed his Final Assessment. Norm becomes the first attendee, in this issue, of the late May evening classroom session, to successfully join the ranks as a qualified Watchkeeper.

Congratulations, Norm, and welcome to great team.

Another three Trainees have completed their Final Assessments since the last 'Ahoy'.

Chris Greenwood, featured above, 'Met-the-Managers' at the Lookout in March. He then attended the late May classroom session, successfully completed his training on the 27th September, and is shown receiving his epaulette on the Lookout balcony, in the sunshine.

Mick Bodington, who Met-the-Managers in May, and attended his classroom session in July, successfully completed his Assessment a couple of days later, on the 29th. Mick receives his epaulette outside the Lookout, on another sunny day.

Congratulations to both Chris, and Mick. Welcome to great team.

The 8th Trainee to successfully complete the Final Assessment since August, is Nick Hadley, who completed his during the late shift on Tuesday the 7th October. Nick is pictured below, receiving his W/K epaulette. Congratulations Nick, and welcome to a great Team. (Buggy driver instruction next 😊)

We are in the process of booking this annual event. It will be held at the Cumberland Hotel in Bournemouth. The date is Wednesday 17th December. The dinner is open to all watchkeepers, family and 'friends' (we don't talk about watchkeeping honest!) and is a great evening. The price this year is £40 per person and includes a three-course meal followed by a quiz and raffle (also includes a tip). It would be lovely if you were able to join us and a good way to start off (if you haven't already) the festive season.

If you would like to come to the dinner, please reply direct to vince.tabor@nci.org.uk as a new email do not use reply button. Only positive replies please. The menu caters for all dietary requirements. Regards Vince.
